

Life Drawing—Teacher Twilight Sessions

Led by artist Joanna Venus, this informal session is a great opportunity for art teachers to have a go at Life Drawing and to learn more about our new workshop 'Brangwyn to Life'.
Thur 20 Oct & Thur 3 Nov, 5-6pm at Scarborough Collections, Woodend, Booking essential, £5 per session (this will be refunded if a booking for the Brangwyn to Life workshop is booked)

Brangwyn to Life

Taking inspiration from our large collection of original drawings done by Frank Brangwyn, we will be offering a life drawing workshop for KS4 students. This life drawing session will introduce your pupils to the same draughtsmanship skills used by Brangwyn to capture the human form.
 (KS4 Art & Design)
*£2 per pupil. Booking essential.
 Half Day workshop: 10am—1pm / 12—3pm*

Big Draw Week

An opportunity for your students to get involved in our week long celebration of this international event. Each day a different artist will be on hand to interact with a variety of collections to inspire you in creating a large scale mural for the world to see on the Rotunda Terrace.
Free event for all. Tuesday 25—Saturday 29 October (11am—4pm), Rotunda Museum.

Landscape & Art

Kane Cunningham and Joe Cornish will be giving a lunchtime talk on how they have worked collaboratively and in response to the changing coastline. This talk will form part of a larger one day conference run by the artists in conjunction with the exhibition at Scarborough Art Gallery.
 (Art & Design, Geography & Science)
*Wednesday 26th October, 12.30—1.30pm, Scarborough Art Gallery. Booking essential.
 For more details about the Art Conference contact the Learning Team.*

East Coast Open—Submission of Work

Following the successful RSVP event (July 2011), we are calling for students to submit their works to the East Coast Open exhibition (17 December 2011—29 January 2012). Works to be submitted to Scarborough Art Gallery between 9—11 December. Entry details can be found on our website.
Sat 17 December 2011—Sun 29 January 2012, Scarborough Art Gallery.

Charmed Learning Package

Our new Learning Package to support the Fears, Foes & Faeries exhibition in 2012 will be launched in December 2011. This exciting exhibition based on W J Clarke's bizarre and beguiling collection of charms and amulets form the basis of this new exhibition which is part of Stories of the World, one of the projects central to the London 2012 Cultural Olympiad.
